Remarks: This is a beautiful large home in a good location in town. This home offers lots of space, great character, and a peaceful neighborhood. The town has plans for a $250,000 park for senior citizens and kids that will be next to this home. The old high school located just yards down the road has just had a multi-million dollar renovation that offers many assets to the general public. If you are looking for a 1950s style large home with assets in a good location you need to take a look.
